

THE PRESIDENCY BANKS ACT, 1876.

ACT NO. XI. OF 1876.

Preamble

It is hereby enacted as follows:-

An Act for constituting and regulating the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay.

WHEREAS the Bank of Bengal is now constituted and regulated by Act No. IV. of 1862, as amended by Acts No. VI. of 1862, and No. XIX. of 1870, and its capital consists of twenty-two millions of rupees, in shares of one thousand rupees each;

And whereas the Bank of Madras is now constituted and regulated by Madras Act No. VI. of 1866, as amended by Madras Act No. I. of 1871, and its capital consists of five millions six hundred and twenty-five thousand rupees, in shares of one thousand rupees each;

And whereas a Bank, named the Bank of Bombay, was constituted and regulated by Bombay Act No. X. of 1863, as amended by Bombay Acts No. XV. of 1866 and No. I. of 1867; but such Bank has been wound up, and the said Bombay Acts are now obsolete, and should be expressly repealed;

And whereas on the 10th day of December 1867, a joint-stock Banking Company was registered and incorporated at Bombay, by virtue of the Indian Companies Act, 1866, under the name of "The New Bank of Bombay, Limited," with a Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association then also registered, and prescribing the constitution and regulations for the management of such Bank;

And whereas the Government of India now holds two thousand two hundred shares in the said Bank of Bengal, and five hundred and sixty-two and-a-half shares in the said Bank of Madras; and, under the provisions of the Said Acts, No. IV. of 1862 and Madras Act No. VI. of 1866, is bound to appoint, and has power to remove, certain of the directors of the said Banks of Bengal and Madras, respectively, and has also power to give a proxy to any person whom the Governor-General in Council may appoint, to attend and vote at any meeting of the proprietors of each of the same Banks;

And whereas the Government of India has determined to sell its said shares and to surrender its said powers; and it is expedient to relieve the said Government from the said duty of appointing directors, and to repeal the said enactments, and to consolidate such of them, as relate to the said Banks of Bengal and Madras, respectively, with the changes rendered necessary or desirable by such sale, surrender and relief;

And whereas it is expedient to reduce the said capital of the Bank of Bengal by two millions of rupees and to reduce the said capital of the Bank of Madras by six hundred and twenty-five thousand rupees, and to divide the capital so reduced of each of the same Banks into shares of five hundred rupees each;

And whereas it is expedient that the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, should be re-constituted and regulated, in manner in this Act provided, under the name of the Bank of Bombay;

CHAPTER I.- PRELIMINARY.

Short title, Commencement.

1. This Act may be called "The Presidency Banks Act, 1876;" And it shall come into force on the 1st day of May 1876.

CHAPTER II.- CONSTITUTION.

Proprietors and shareholders of present Banks, to form bodies corporate.

4. The several persons who, when this Act comes into force, are respectively the proprietors and shareholders of the said Bank of Bengal, Bank of Madras, and New Bank of Bombay, Limited (hereinafter called the present Banks), or who shall, at any time thereafter, by virtue of this or any other Act regulating the Bank, become proprietors or shareholders, shall continue and constitute and be bodies corporate with perpetual succession, under the name, in the case of the proprietors and shareholders of the said Bank of Bengal-of “The Bank of Bengal,” in the case of the proprietors and shareholders of the said Bank of Madras-of “The Bank of Madras,” and in the case of the shareholders and proprietors of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited-of “The Bank of Bombay,” and shall respectively possess and enjoy all the rights, powers, and immunities incident by law to a corporation aggregate; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of this or any other Act for the time being in force regulating the Bank,

With limited liability.

and, in particular, the proprietors of the Bank shall not be liable for its debts and engagements, and the shareholders of the Bank shall be so liable only to the extent of their shares not fully paid up.

Proprietors and shareholders of present Banks, to be proprietors and shareholders of new Banks.

The several persons who are then proprietors and shareholders of each of the present Banks of Bengal and Madras, or the executors or administrators of such proprietors and shareholders, respectively, shall be entitled to be registered as proprietors and holders of a like quantity of stock and a proportionate number of shares, as is, or are then registered in their names, respectively, or in the names of the persons whom they represent respectively in the books of each of the said present Banks of Bengal and Madras, two shares in the Bank of Bengal as constituted by this Act being deemed equivalent to one share in the present Bank of Bengal, and two shares in the Bank of Madras as constituted by this Act being deemed equivalent to one share in the present Bank of Madras, and the several persons who are then shareholders of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, or the executors or administrators of such shareholders respectively, shall be registered as holders of a like number of shares of the Bank of Bombay as constituted by this Act, as are then registered in their names, respectively, or in the names of the persons whom they represent, respectively, in the books of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited; and all such shares upon which the sum of five hundred rupees has then been paid, shall be deemed to have been fully paid up.

Property of present Banks to vest respectively in new Banks.

5. All the property, movable and immovable, and all the securities, claims, and demands, and the benefits of all agreements, of or to which the present Banks are or shall be respectively possessed or entitled, or which shall, or but for this Act might be, on the said 1st day of May 1876, or might at any time thereafter have been, due to, or claimed by, the said Banks respectively, shall, by virtue of this Act, become vested in and devolve upon, and may be claimed, made, and recovered by-in the case of the said Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Bengal as constituted by this Act;

in the case of the said Bank of Madras, the Bank of Madras as constituted by this Act;

and in the case of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, the Bank of Bombay as constituted by this Act; and the Bank shall, from and after the said 1st day of May 1876, be liable and subject to all debts, claims, and demands, which shall then be due or claimable form, or which, but for this Act, might be then, or might at any time thereafter, have been due or claimable from or made against the said Bank of Bengal, Bank of Madras, or New Bank of Bombay, Limited, as the case may be,

Claims against present Banks.

and no suit or legal proceeding then pending by or against the said Bank of Bengal, Bank of Madras, or New Bank of Bombay, Limited, shall cease, or abate, or become defective, in consequence of this Act, but may be continued and prosecuted by or against the Bank.

New Bank of Bombay, Limited, wound-up.

6. The transfer of the assets and liabilities of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, to the Bank of Bombay by virtue of this Act, shall operate as a winding-up and liquidation of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited.

No shareholder or creditor of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, shall take any proceedings for winding-up the same, under the Indian Companies' Act, 1866, or any Act for the time being in force relating to the winding-up of Companies; and no person shall make, assert, or take any claims, demands, or proceedings against the same Bank, or the directors or officers thereof, except so far as may be necessary for enforcing the provisions of this or any other Act for the time being in force, regulating the Bank of Bombay.

Banks to sue and be sued in corporate name; and use corporate seals; and may hold and transfer property.

7. The Bank shall sue and be sued by its said corporate name; and shall use such corporate seal as the directors from time to time appoint;

and may, as such body corporate, acquire and hold, either absolutely or conditionally, for a term or in perpetuity, any property whatsoever, movable or immovable, and transfer, assign, and convey the same.

Seal how used.

8. The seal of the Bank shall not be affixed to any instrument, except in the presence of at least two directors and of the Secretary and Treasurer, who shall sign their names to the instrument in token of their presence, and such signing shall be independent of the signing of any person who may sign the instrument as a witness.

Unless so signed as aforesaid, such instrument shall be of no validity.

Contracts how made.

9. Contracts may be made on behalf of the Bank as follows:-

(a)-any contract, which, if made between private persons, would be by law required to be in writing, and, if made according to English law, to be under seal, may be made on behalf of the Bank in writing under its corporate seal, and such contract may be in the same manner varied or discharged:

(b)-any contract, which if made between private persons, would be by law required to be in writing, signed by the parties to be charged therewith, may be made on behalf of the Bank by writing signed by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the Bank, and such contract may in the same manner be varied and discharged:

(c)- any contract, which if made between private persons, would by law be valid, although made by parol only, and not reduced into writing, may be made by parol on behalf of the Bank by any persons acting under the express or implied authority of the Bank, and such contract may in the same manner be varied and discharged;

and all contracts made according to the provisions herein contained shall be effectual in law, and shall be binding upon the Bank and other parties thereto, and their legal representatives.

CHAPTER III.- CAPITAL.

Capital of Bank of Bengal.

10. The capital of the Bank of Bengal shall consist of twenty millions of rupees, in shares of five hundred rupees each, divisible into half-shares, with power to increase the same, in manner hereinafter provided, to thirty millions of rupees.

Capital of Bank of Madras.

The capital of the Bank of Madras shall consist of five millions of rupees, in shares of five hundred rupees each, divisible into half-shares, with power to increase the same, in manner hereinafter provided, to twelve millions of rupees.

Capital of Bank of Bombay.

The capital of the Bank of Bombay shall consist of ten millions of rupees, in shares of five hundred rupees each, divisible into half-shares, with power to increase the same, in manner hereinafter provided, to twenty millions of rupees.

Capital of New Bank of Bombay, Limited, to be capital of Bank of Bombay.

11. The capital of the said New Bank of Bombay, Limited, already created shall, on the 1st day of May 1876, constitute the capital of the Bank of Bombay, subject to be increased, as aforesaid.

Surrender of paid-up shares for stock.

12. Any shareholder may, from time to time, surrender his wholly paid-up shares, or any of them, to the directors, and demand and receive from the Bank, in lieu thereof, capital stock to the amount represented by the shares so surrendered, and any proprietor may, from time to time, surrender his stock, or any portion thereof, to the directors, and demand and receive from the Bank, in lieu thereof, shares to the like amount, or as near thereto as practicable.

Surrender of stock for shares.

Power to increase or reduce capital.

13. The proprietors and shareholders of the Bank may, from time to time, by special resolution, and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, increase or reduce the capital of the Bank:

Provided that no such special resolution shall be deemed to have been passed, unless at least one-third in number of the proprietors or shareholders, holding at least one-half of the paid-up capital of the Bank for the time being, be present in person, or by proxy, and a majority poll by open voting in favour of the said resolution.

Procedure on resolution to increase capital.

14. When any such special resolution to increase the capital has been passed, the directors may, subject to the provisions of this, or any other Act for the time being in force regulating such Bank, and to the special direction (if any) given in reference thereto by the meeting at which such resolution has been passed,

(a)-make such orders as they think fit for the opening of subscriptions towards such increase of capital by the proprietors and shareholders;

(b)-allow to the proprietors and shareholders such period to fill up the subscription as to the directors seem fit;

(c)-prescribe the manner in which the proprietors and shareholders shall subscribe and pay into the Bank the proportions of new capital which they may respectively desire to subscribe; and

(d)-make such orders as the directors think fit for the disposal and allotment of the amount of new capital that may not be subscribed for and paid up in manner aforesaid:

Provided that the capital shall not exceed, in the case of the Bank of Bengal, thirty millions of rupees; in the case of the Bank of Madras, twelve millions of rupees; and in the case of Bank of Bombay, twenty millions of rupees.

Procedure on resolution to reduce capital.

15. When any such special resolution to reduce the capital has been passed, the directors may (subject as aforesaid) prescribe the manner in which the reduction shall be carried into effect.

New capital to be subject to provisions of Act.

16. Any new capital created under the provisions of section thirteen, shall be subject to the provisions of this or any other Act regulating the Bank in force for the time being.

CHAPTER IV.- FORFEITURE OF STOCK AND SHARES.

Powers in regard to proprietors or shareholders indebted to Bank.

17. If any proprietor or shareholder is indebted to the Bank, the Bank may withhold payment of the dividends on the stock or shares of such proprietor or shareholder not being registered as held in trust, or as executor or administrator, and apply them in payment of the debt; and the Bank may refuse to register the transfer of any such stock or shares until payment of such debt; and after demand and default of payment, and notice in that behalf given to such proprietor or shareholder, or his constituted agent, or by public advertisement in the local official Gazette, if the debt remain unpaid for the space of three months after such notice, the Bank may advertise in the local official Gazette such stock or shares for sale on a day not less than fifteen days from the publication of such advertisement; and may, on such day, sell by public auction, and subject to such conditions, if any, as the Bank thinks fit, such stock or shares, or so much, or so many thereof as may be necessary, and apply the proceeds thereof in or towards payment of the said debt, with interest, from the day appointed for the payment of such debt to the time of actual payment, at such rate as may have been agreed upon, or, in the absence of such agreement, at the highest rate current for advances by way of local discounts by the Bank; and shall pay over the surplus, if any, to such proprietor or shareholder or to his lawful representative.

CHAPTER V.- CERTIFICATES, TRANSFER, AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES AND STOCK.

Certificates for shares.

18. Every shareholder shall be entitled to a certificate, under the corporate seal of the Bank, and signed by two directors and the Secretary and Treasurer, specifying the shares held by him, and in the case of shares which are not wholly paid up, the amount paid thereon; and any holder of more than one half share may, at his option, demand a certificate for each such half-share, or one or more certificates for all or any of such half shares, and such certificate or certificates shall be delivered to him accordingly: provided that the number of such certificates shall in no case exceed the number of half shares in respect of which they are so delivered.

Receipts for stock.

Every proprietor of capital stock shall be entitled to a receipt signed by two Directors and the Secretary and Treasurer, and specifying the amount of stock held by him, and any such proprietor may, at his option, demand one receipt for the whole of the stock, or separate receipts for any portions of the stock, so held by him, and such receipt or receipts shall be delivered to him accordingly: Provided that no receipt shall be delivered for a portion of stock less than two hundred and fifty rupees.

Fees for certificates and receipts.

For every certificate and receipt delivered under this section there shall be paid such fee as may for the time being be prescribed under section sixty-three, clause (b) : Provided that no fee shall be payable for certificates or receipts delivered to the persons referred to in section four for shares in or stock of the Bank.

Certificates and receipts to be evidence.

Every such certificate and receipt shall be prima facie evidence of the title of the shareholder or proprietor to the shares or stock therein specified.

Stock and shares to be movable property.

19. The stock and shares of every proprietor and shareholder shall be movable property, capable of being transferred in manner provided by the regulations contained therein, or in any other Act regulating the Bank for the time being in force, and shall not be of the nature of immovable property; and each share shall be distinguished by its appropriate number.

Form of transfer to be approved by Board.

20. Every transfer of stock or shares may be, by endorsement on the certificate, or in such other form as the Board from time to time may approve, and shall be presented to the Bank accompanied by such evidence as the Board may require to prove the title of the transferor.

Board may require evidence of transmission.

Every such transfer shall be verified in such manner as the Board require, and the Board may refuse to register any such transfer until the same be so verified, and, in the case of shares not fully paid up, unless the transferee is approved by the Board.

Transferor to remain proprietor till transfer registered.

The transferor shall be deemed to remain the proprietor or holder of the stock or shares transferred, until the name of the transferee is registered in respect thereof.

Power to close transfer-books.

21. The directors may from time to time close the registered and transfer-books of the Bank for any period or periods not exceeding, in the whole, thirty days in any twelve consecutive months.

Corporation to consist of registered proprietors or shareholders only.

22. The proprietors and shareholders for the time being, and no other persons, shall be members respectively of the bodies corporate hereby constituted;

Notice of trusts.

and, except for the purpose of excluding the provisions of section seventeen, the Bank shall not be bound or affected by notice of any trust to which any stock or share may be subject in the hands of the proprietor or holder thereof; and when any stock or share is vested in more than one proprietor or holder, such proprietors, or shareholders shall, as between themselves and the Bank, be considered as joint owners with benefit of survivorship:

Shares vested in several holders.

Provided that, as regards voting at meetings, service of notices and receipt of dividend, the person whose name stands first in the register as one of the proprietors or holders of such stock or shares, shall be deemed the sole proprietor or holders thereof.

Transmission of stock or shares of deceased proprietors or shareholders.

23. When by the death of any proprietor or shareholder his stock or shares shall devolve on his legal representative, the Bank shall not be bound to recognize any legal representative of such proprietor or shareholder other than a person who has taken out from a Court having jurisdiction in this behalf probate of the will or letters-of-administration to the estate of the deceased.

Transmission on insolvency or marriage.

Any person becoming entitled to stock or shares in consequence of the insolvency or bankruptcy of any proprietor or shareholder, or in consequence of the marriage of any female proprietor or shareholder may be registered as proprietor or shareholder, upon such evidence being produced, as the directors may from time to time require.

CHAPTER VI.- DIRECTORS.

Board.

24. The business of the Bank shall be managed by the Board, which shall, in the first instance, consist of six directors, and may subsequently consist of such number, not less than six, and not more than nine, as may be fixed by a special resolution.

Such directors shall be selected by vote of a general or special meeting.

Quorum.

Three of the directors shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

Present directors to be continued.

25. The persons who, on the 1st day of May 1876, are respectively directors of the bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, and the New Bank of Bombay, Limited, shall be respectively directors of the Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, and the Bank of Bombay, as constituted by this Act, subject to removal as hereinafter provided, and to the other provisions herein contained.

Two directors to go out by rotation annually.

26. The two directors who have been longest in office, shall go out of office at the general meeting.

Any director so retiring may be re-elected at such meeting; and, if any question arise, as to which of the directors who have been the same time in office shall retire, such question shall be decided by the directors by ballot.

Qualification of directors.

27. Clause 1.- No person shall be qualified to serve as a director of a Bank who is not a proprietor or holder in his own right of unencumbered stock or shares of such Bank, to the nominal amount of ten thousand rupees at the least.

Disqualification of directors.

Clause 2.- No person shall be qualified to serve as a director-if he holds the office of director, provisional director, promoter, agent, or manager of any other Joint-stock Bank established, or having a branch or agency in British India, or advertised as about to be established, or to have a branch or agency in British India; or if he is a salaried Officer of Government not specially authorized by the Governor-General in Council to serve as a director; and the office of director shall be vacated-if the person holding it resigns his office or dies;

if he accepts or holds any other office of profit under the Bank;

if he becomes insolvent or bankrupt, or compounds with his creditors;

if he is declared lunatic, or becomes of unsound mind;

if he is absent from the Board for more than three consecutive months;

if he ceases to hold in his own right the amount or number of unencumbered stock or shares required to qualify him for the office.

Co-partners of same firm not to serve as directors at same time.

Clause 3.- No two persons who are partners of the same mercantile firm, or one of whom is the general agent of, or holds a power of procuration from the other, or from a mercantile firm of which the other is a partner, shall be eligible or qualified to serve as directors at the same time.

Power to remove directors.

Clause 4.- The proprietors or shareholders may, by a special resolution passed by the votes of proprietors or share-holders holding in the aggregate not less than one-half of the capital, remove any director before the expiration of his period of office, and appoint, in his stead, a qualified person, who shall in all respects stand in his place.

Directors to choose President and Vice-President.

28. At the first meeting of the directors in every year, they shall choose a President and Vice-President from among themselves, and whenever the office of President or Vice-President becomes vacant, they shall at their next meeting, choose a successor for the remainder of the current year.

Chairman.

The President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, shall be chairman at all meetings whether of directors or of proprietors or shareholders, or of proprietors and share-holders, and shall have an additional or casting vote in all cases of an equal division of votes:

Casting vote.

Provided that if both the President and Vice-President be absent at any meeting, the directors present shall elect a chairman for such meeting from among themselves; and such chairman shall, in case of an equal division of votes, have an additional or casting vote .

Vacancies among directors how filled up.

29. The Board shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to supply any vacancies in their number arising from the death, resignation, or disqualification, under section twenty-seven, of any director.

Any director so appointed shall, for the purposes of section twenty-six, be considered to have held office from the date on which the director in whose place he is appointed was elected, or (where such director was appointed under this section), from the date on which his mediate or immediate predecessor was elected.

Acts of directors valid, notwithstanding subsequent discovery of disqualification.

30. All acts done by any person acting in good faith as a director shall be as valid as if he was a director, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in his appointment or qualification.

Indemnity of directors.

31. Every director shall be indemnified by the Bank against all losses and expenses incurred by him in, or about, the discharge of his duties, except such as happen from his own wilful act or default.

No director shall be responsible for any other director or for any Officer, clerk, or servant of the Bank, or for any loss or expense happening to the Bank by the insufficiency or deficiency of value of, or title to, any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the Bank, or by the insolvency, bankruptcy, or wrongful act of any customer or debtor of the Bank, or by anything done in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation there-to, or otherwise than for, his own wilful act or default.

CHAPTER VII.- OFFICERS OF THE BANK.

Appointment, salaries, suspension, and removal of officers.

32. The directors shall have power- to appoint such officers, clerks, and servants, as may be necessary to conduct the business of the Bank; to grant salaries, pensions, and other emoluments to such officers, clerks and servants; and to suspend or remove any officer, clerk or servant of the Bank.

Accounts, receipts and documents of Bank by whom to be signed.

33. The Secretary and such other officers of the Bank as the directors may by writing notified in the local official Gazette (and, in the case of the Bank of Bengal, also in the Gazette of India) are hereby severally empowered for, and on behalf of, the Bank, to endorse and transfer promissory notes, stock-receipts, stock, debentures, shares, securities, and documents of title to goods, standing in the name of, or held by, the Bank; and to draw, accept, and endorse bills-of-exchange, bank post-bills, and letters-of credit, in the current and authorized business of the Bank; and to sign all other accounts, receipts, and documents, connected with such business.

Officers for bidden to engage in other commercial business.

34. No Secretary, Inspector, Manager, or Accountant in the service of the Bank, and no Khazanchi, Cashier, or Shroff in the service of the Bank at the principal office, and, without the previous sanction of the Board, no Agent, Khazanchi, Cashier, or Shroff at any branch or agency of the Bank, shall engage in any other banking or commercial business, either on his own account, or as agent for any other person or persons, or shall act as broker or agent for the sale or purchase of Government or other securities.

Security from Officers.

35. Every person appointed to hold, or act in, any one or more of the said offices, and every other officer from whom the directors may from time to time think fit to require it, shall give security to the directors, for the faithful discharge of his duty to the satisfaction of the directors, in such amount and in such manner, as they think proper.

The security to be given as aforesaid by the person holding or acting in the office of Secretary shall not be in a less amount than fifty thousand rupees.

CHAPTER VIII.- BUSINESS.

Business which Banks may transact.

36. The Bank is authorized to carry on and transact the several kinds of business hereinafter specified (that is to say)-

(a) the advancing and lending money, and opening cash-credits, upon the security of-

(1)-promissory notes, debentures, stock and other securities of the Government of India, or of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland;

- (j) the transacting of pecuniary agency business on commission;
- (k) the acting as agent on commission in the transaction of the following kinds of business (namely):-
- (1)-the buying, selling, transferring and taking charge of any securities, or any shares in any public Company;
  - (2)-the receiving of the proceeds, whether principal, interest or dividends, of any securities or shares;
  - (3)-the remittance of such proceeds at the risk of the principal by public or private bills-of-exchange, payable either in India or elsewhere;
- (l) the drawing of bills-of-exchange, and the granting of letters-of-credit, payable out of India, for the use of principals for the purpose of the remittances mentioned in the last preceding clause of this section;
- (m) the buying, for the purpose of meeting such bills or letters-of-credit, of bills-of-exchange payable out of India, at any usance not exceeding six months;
- (n) and, generally, the doing of all such matters and things as may be incidental or subsidiary to the transacting of the various kinds of business hereinbefore specified;
- (o) It shall also be lawful for the Bank under any arrangement or agreement with the Secretary of State for India in Council-
- (1)-to act as banker for, and to pay, receive, collect, and remit money, bullion and securities on behalf of the Government;

(2)-to undertake and transact any other business which the Government may from time to time entrust to the Bank;

and the directors shall have power from time to time to arrange and settle with the Governor-General in Council the terms of remuneration on which such business shall be undertaken by the Bank, and also as to the examination and audit, from time to time, of the accounts and affairs of the Bank by or on behalf of the Governor-General in Council.

Business which Banks may not transact.

37. The directors shall not transact any kind of banking business other than those above specified, and in particular they shall not make any loan or advance-

(a) for a longer period than three months; or

(b) upon the security of stock or shares of the Bank of which they are directors; or

(c) upon mortgage, or in any other manner upon the security, of any immovable property, or the documents of title relating thereto;

(d) nor shall they lend or advance, by discount of bills or otherwise, to any individual or partnership firm [except upon the security mentioned in section thirty-six, paragraph (a), numbers (1) to (5) inclusive], any sums exceeding in the whole at any one time such sum as may be prescribed by the bye-laws for the time being in force;

(e) nor shall they discount or buy, or advance and lend, or open cash-credits on the security of any negotiable instrument of any individual or partnership firm, payable in the town or at the place where it is presented for discount, which does not carry on it the several responsibilities of at least two persons or firms unconnected with each other in general partnership;

(f) nor shall they discount or buy, or advance and lend, or open cash-credits on the security of any negotiable security, having at the date of the proposed transaction a longer period to run than three months, or if drawn after sight, drawn for a longer period than three months: provided that, in the case of the Bank of Madras, the directors may discount negotiable securities payable in Ceylon, having at the date of the transaction a period to run not exceeding four months.

Overdrawing.

Nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to prevent the directors from allowing any person who keeps an account with the Bank from overrawing such account, without security, to the extent of sums not exceeding at any one time two thousand rupees in the whole.

Sums payable by or to Government, to be payable at Banks.

38. Until the expiration of at least fourteen days after notice has been given by notification of the Governor-General in Council published, in the case of the Bank of Bengal, in the Gazette of India and the Calcutta Gazette, and in the cases of the Bank of Madras and the Bank of Bombay, in the local official Gazette, that the Bank will no longer act as banker for, or pay, receive, collect, or remit money, bullion, and securites on behalf of the Government, all sums payable by or to the Secretary of State for India in Council, or by or to the Governor-General in Council, or the Government of Bengal, or the Governor of Fort St. George in Council, or the Governor of Bombay in Council, on behalf of the Secretary of State for India in Council, at the General Treasury of Fort William in Bengal, or at the General Treasury at Madras, or at the General Treasury at Bombay, shall be payable-in the case of the Secretary of State for India in Council, or the Governor-General in Council-at the office of the Bank of Bengal, the Bank of Madras, or the Bank of Bombay, as the case may be; in the case of the Government of Bengal- at the office of the Bank of Bengal; in the case of the Government of Fort St. George in Council-at the office of the Bank of Madras; and in the case of the Governor of Bombay in Council-at the office of the Bank of Bombay.

Presentment of promissory notes at Banks.

39. Whenever presentment of any promissory note, bond, or other security for payment, or any other purpose at any of the said General Treasuries would heretofore have been necessary or sufficient, presentment for such purpose shall be necessary or sufficient (as the case may be) until the expiration of fourteen days after the giving of the notice mentioned in section eleven-in the case of the General Treasury of Fort William-at the office of the Bank of Bengal; in the case of the General Treasury at Madras-at the office of the Bank of Madras; and in the case of the General Treasury at Bombay-at the office of the Bank of Bombay.

Place of business.

40. The office of the Bank of Bengal shall be at Calcutta, that the Bank of Madras shall be at Madras, and that of the Bank of Bombay shall be in the Island of Bombay; and the business of the Bank shall be carried on at its office, and at such other place or places in India, as the Board may deem advisable, under the provisions of section forty-two.

Acquisition of business premises.

41. For the purpose of providing offices and places, in and at which to carry on and manage the business of the Bank, and proper residences for its agents, the directors may-

(a)-acquire any interest in immovable property; and

(b)-sell, buy in, re-sell, exchange, let, furnish, repair, insure against fire, and otherwise deal with all or any part of the same as they may consider most conducive to the interests of the Bank.

Establishment of branches and agencies.

42. It shall be lawful for the directors to maintain, as branches or agencies of the Bank, any branches or agencies of the present Banks which may be in existence on the 1st day of May 1876;

and, from time to time, to establish branches or agencies at such places within the Presidency in which the Bank is situate, as they deem advantageous to the interest of the Bank;

and, with the previous consent of the Governor-General in Council, and subject to such restrictions as to the business to be transacted as he thinks fit in each case to impose (such consent and restrictions being notified in the Gazette of India), to establish branches of agencies at such places outside the Presidency in which the Bank is situate, as the directors deem advantageous for the interests of the Bank:

Proviso.

Provided that no agency of the Bank now or hereafter established in Bombay, Calcutta or Madras shall advance, or lend money, or open cash-credits on securities, or receive deposits and keep cash-accounts, or discount bills-of exchange drawn, and payable in the Presidency in which it is so established;

or shall act as agent on commission, or transact any business except as agent of its principal Bank, or any of its branches or other agencies.

The directors may discontinue any branch or agency maintained or established under this section.

CHAPTER IX.- ACCOUNTS AND DIVIDENDS.

Books to be balanced twice a year.

43. The directors shall cause the books of the Bank to be balanced on every 31st day of December and every 30th day of June.

A statement of the balance at every such period, signed by a majority of the directors, shall be forthwith sent to a Secretary to the Government of India, and in the cases of the Bank of Madras and the Bank of Bombay, also to a Secretary to the local Government.

The Governor-General in Council in the case of each of the said Banks, and the local Government in the case of the Bank of Madras and the Bank of Bombay, shall (so long as any such arrangement with the Government as aforesaid, which has already been, or shall hereafter be, entered into remains in force) at all times be entitled to require of the directors any information touching the affairs of the Bank and the production of any document of the Bank, and in the case of each of the said Banks the Governor-General in Council may require the publication of such statements of its assets and liabilities at such intervals, and in such form and manner, as the Governor-General in Council thinks fit.

Every requisition under this section shall be signified in writing under the hand of a Secretary to the Government of India, or to the local Government (as the case may be), and the directors shall comply with every such requisition.

Dividends to be determined half-yearly.

44. An account of the profits of the Bank during the previous half-year shall be taken on, or immediately after, every 31st day of December and every 30th day of June, and a dividend shall be made as soon thereafter as conveniently may be,

and the amount of such dividend shall be determined by the directors, subject to the provisions of section forty-five;

no unpaid dividend shall bear interest as against the Bank.

Reserve-fund.

45. The directors, before declaring any dividend, may set aside out of the profits of the Bank, such a sum as they think proper as a reserve-fund, and invest the same upon any of the securities specified in section thirty-six, paragraph (a), clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4).

Application of reserve-fund.

46. The directors may from time to time apply such portion as they think fit of the reserve-fund to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for any other purposes of the Bank, which they from time to time deem expedient.

CHAPTER X.- AUDIT.

Election of auditors.

47. Two auditors shall be elected, and their remuneration fixed at the annual general meeting.

Who may be auditors.

The auditors may be proprietors or share-holders; but no director or other officer of the Company is eligible during his continuance in office.

Auditors re-eligible.

Any auditor shall be re-eligible on his quitting office.

Auditors' tenure of office.

The persons who shall be auditors on the 1st day of May 1876, and all auditors elected under this section, shall severally be and continue to act as auditors until the first general meeting after their respective elections.

Supply of casual vacancy in office.

Provided that if any casual vacancy occurs in the office of any auditor, the directors shall forthwith call a special meeting for the purpose of supplying the same.

Rights and duties of auditors.

48. Every auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the half-yearly balance-sheet, and it shall be his duty to examine the same, with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto.

Every auditor shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Bank, and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts, and other documents of the Bank, and may (at the expense of the Bank) employ accountants or other persons to assist him in investigating such accounts, and may, in relation to such accounts, examine the directors or any other officer of the Bank.

The auditors shall make a report to the proprietors and shareholders upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts; and in every such report they shall state whether, in their opinion, the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing the particulars required by the bye-laws made under this Act and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Bank's affairs, and in case they have called for any explanation or information from the directors, whether it has been given by the directors and whether it has been satisfactory.

Such report shall be read together with the report of the directors at the annual general meeting.

CHAPTER XI.- MEETINGS.

Annual general meeting.

49. On the first Monday of the month of August in every year, or as soon after such day as is convenient, a general meeting shall be held, at which the directors shall submit to the proprietors and shareholders a statement of the affairs of the Bank made up to the preceding 30th day of June. A notice convening such meeting, signed by the Secretary, shall be published in the local official Gazette, and in the case of the Bank of Bengal, also in the Gazette of India, at least fifteen days before the meeting is held.

Special meetings.

50. Any ten or more proprietors or share-holders holding stock or shares, or both, to the aggregate amount of fifty thousand rupees, or any three directors, may convene a special meeting upon giving fifteen days' previous notice of such meeting, and of the purpose for which the same is convened, as well to the directors as also by public advertisement in the local official Gazette, and in two of the English daily newspapers and one of the vernacular newspapers:

Provided that three months' previous notice shall be thus given of any special meeting held for the purpose of increasing or reducing the capital of the Bank, an shall also be served on every proprietor and shareholder.

Quorum.

51. No business shall be transacted at any meeting, whether general or special, unless a quorum of twenty proprietors or shareholders, or both, in person or by proxy, is present at the commencement of such business.

If, within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened by proprietors or shareholders not being directors, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week, at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, it shall be adjourned sine die.

Decision by majority of votes.

52. At meetings, whether general or special, every election and other matter submitted to the meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes, except as in section thirteen and in section twenty-seven, clause 4, is specially provided, and no person shall be allowed to vote at any such meeting in respect of any stock or share acquired by transfer, unless such transfer shall have been completed and registered at least three months before the time of such meeting.

Persons not allowed to vote.

Shareholders in arrears as to calls.

And no shareholder shall be entitled to vote at any meeting in respect of any shares held by him, alone or jointly, whilst any call due from him alone or jointly remains unpaid.

Power to declare resolution carried by show of hands.

53. A declaration by the chairman of any meeting, except a special meeting held under section thirteen, that a resolution has been carried thereat upon a show of hands, shall be conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Bank shall be sufficient evidence of that fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, such resolution, unless immediately on such declaration, a poll be demanded in writing by five proprietors or shareholders present, and entitled to vote at such meeting.

Poll to be taken, if demanded.

54. If a poll be demanded, it shall be taken at such time and place, and (except at the special meeting last afore-said) either by open voting or by ballot, as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Proceedings and resolutions at meetings to be biding.

55. The proceedings at any meeting, and all resolutions and decisions of such meeting, shall be valid and binding on the Bank, so far as such proceedings, resolutions and decisions are consistent with the provisions of this or any other Act for the time being in force and regulating the Bank.

Scale of votes.

56. At all such meetings, the proprietors or shareholders shall vote according to the following scale:-
